

eXtension (pronounced "E-extension") is a national initiative focused on transforming the way Cooperative Extension Education works, by:

- fostering collaboration around subject areas using the Communities of Practice model
- providing a nexus for web content available 24/7 at www.extension.org
- improving technology skills through a broad range of professional development offerings
- encouraging new ways to engage and teach through the use of web technologies

Watch the video "Why eXtension?"